INTRODUCTION

The South African Society of Occupational Medicine (SASOM) was formed in 1948 to further Occupational Medicine and has subsequently played a leading role in the pursuit of health and safety in industry in general.

SASOM is a professional society and a special interest group of the South African Medical Association (SAMA) with links to the World Medical Association. SASOM has been affiliated with the International Commission on Occupational Health (ICOH) and its 27 scientific committees since its inception.

Our members are registered medical practitioners and other professionals who work in occupational health or who have an interest in this area of medical practice.

SASOM advocated the recognition of occupational medicine as a specialty field in medicine for many years before it was received from the Health Professions Council of South Africa.

SASOM networks with specialist groups in the field of Occupational and Environmental Medicine and jointly issues an accredited scientific journal with them.

SASOM has a permanent National Office in Pretoria with a full time staff member and full electronic mail capacity and various member support services.

CONSTITUTION

1. NAME

The name of the Society will be “The South African Society of Occupational Medicine”.

2. AFFILIATION

The Society is an official group of the South African Medical Association, an association incorporated under section 21 of the Companies Act, 1973, Registered No 05/600136/08 and is subject to the Articles and By-laws of the South African Medical Association.

3. VISION

To enhance the quality of life of the working population of South Africa during employment and into retirement.

4. MISSION

To promote, protect and enhance the health of the working population of South Africa.
To further all aspects of occupational health in South Africa.
To be the guardian for ethical and medical standards of Occupational Medicine.
To be the professional information resource on occupational health matters.

5. OBJECTIVES

The objectives for which the Society is established are:

- 5.1 To determine, protect, maintain and promote the health of the working population of South Africa and to be concerned with relevant issues affecting the health of their families.
- 5.2 To enhance the physical, mental and social well-being of the working population of South Africa.
- 5.3 To promote and be involved in providing for healthy work by eliminating occupational factors and conditions hazardous to health.
- 5.4 To strengthen and promote sound communication between the Society and its members and all stakeholders.

- 5.5 To advance occupational health and promote the discipline of Occupational Medicine by means of continuing education.
- 5.6 To contribute to the global body of knowledge in occupational health.
- 5.7 To further the professional standards of practice and interests of the members of the Society.

6. MEMBERSHIP

Membership will be ordinary, retired, associate, corporate or honorary.

- 6.1 Ordinary membership: Any person who is a medical practitioner within or outside the borders of the Republic of South Africa and registered with the HPCSA or with a similar body recognized by the HPCSA.
- 6.2 Retired membership: Medical practitioners who retired from active medical practice.
- 6.3 Associate membership: People who are not registered as medical practitioners and who have an interest in Occupational Health or contributing financially to further the objectives of the Society.
- 6.4 Corporate membership: Medical Practitioner groups, companies, institutions, healthcare organisations, academic faculties, etc. who employ more than one person who would like to become members.
- 6.5 Honorary membership may be extended to members of the Society who have rendered exceptional service in the opinion of the Executive. Any member of the Society may motivate a written recommendation to the Executive, supported by two seconders who are also members, for consideration. Honorary membership will only be bestowed by the Executive Committee of the Society and is not to be debated at General Meetings. Honorary membership is for life and no membership and congress attendance fees are payable.
- 6.6 Every member will remain a member until the membership is terminated by either resignation in writing addressed to the Secretary, or by the decision of the Executive Committee of the Society.

7. CONTROL

- 7.1 The general control and direction of policy and affairs of the Society will be vested in the Executive Committee of the Society.
- 7.2 The Executive Committee will consist of the Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, Secretary, Treasurer and not more than 6 (six) additional elected members. Each Branch must appoint one of its members to represent it on the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee may also co-opt members as it deems necessary to function efficiently. Facilitators of special interest groups of the Society will be co-opted to the Executive Committee on an ad hoc basis. The Executive Committee will hold office for a year and until the new committee has been elected.
- 7.3 Election of all officers of the Executive Committee will be by secret ballot of those present at the Annual General Meeting of the Society unless the nominations are unopposed.
- 7.4 The Secretary will ensure keeping of records of all meetings of the Society and conducting of all correspondence in connection with the affairs of the Society.

- 7.5 The Treasurer will manage the financial matters of the Society.
- 7.6 Only medical practitioners registered with the HPCSA or with a similar body recognized by the HPCSA have voting powers in the society.
- 7.7 The activities of the Society will be suspended if at any time its membership becomes less than 50 (fifty) members.

8. MEETINGS

- 8.1 The Executive Committee will meet at least twice in a financial year. An Annual General Meeting of which at least 1 (one) month's prior notice will be given to the relevant members will be held within 60 days of the close of the financial year.
- 8.2 Special General Meetings of the Society may be held at any time and will be called by the Executive Committee or on the written request of 5 (five) ordinary members of the Society.

9. ORGANISATION

- 9.1 The Society can allow the formation of Branches of the Society in such manner as may be desirable. Branches may be allowed powers of independent action in local matters provided that such action is not in conflict with the objectives and good values of the Society.
- 9.2 Executive members of the National Executive Committee and Branches must be members in good standing.
- 9.3 Reports of local actions, financial statements and lists of Branch members in good standing by the Secretaries and Treasurers of the Branches and special interest groups will be submitted to the Secretary and treasurer of the National Executive Committee at least one month before the Annual General Meeting of the Society for incorporation into the Annual Report.
- 9.4 The Society can allow the formation of special interest groups of the Society in such manner as may be desirable.

10. MEMBERSHIP FEES

- 10.1 Annual membership fees will be payable from the day following the Annual General Meeting of each year by members of the Society.
- 10.2 Membership will be suspended if subscription is not paid by 1 May of the year in which it is due, but membership so suspended may be re-instituted on payment of the arrear subscription due.
- 10.3 Persons who become members after 1 August pay only half the membership fee for that year.
- 10.4 The amount of the fee will be determined by majority vote at the Annual General Meeting of the Society.

11. AMENDMENTS

Amendments to this constitution will be effected only if passed by a two-thirds majority of those voting at a General Meeting of the Society.
